A range of Grenache grapes of massal selection where different colors, nuances, and balances increase the complexity.

TASTING (14/10/24)

Subtle fresh menthol notes, on a background of cherry, pomegranate and carob.

Nuances of orange peel, over a fresh Mediterranean background of thyme, lavender and aniseed, along with dried blue flowers.

VINIFICATION

Destemmed and gently pressed. Fermentation in a 5,000 l. Slovenian oak foudre, where it remains with its skins for 2 months.

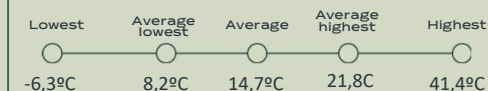

Subsequent aging of 10 more months until completing one year in foudre.

The palate is fluid and incredibly textured with fine-grained tannins that provide elegance and austerity. On the palate, aromas of slightly sour cherries, with a fresh citrus touch of orange peel and menthol. Long, fresh finish in an ethereal fruity and ripe style that offers great pleasure.
