	2021	Red wine made in clay vessel	El Vinyet	398 bottles

TERROIR AND VINEYARDS

Located next to the Farfanya river and cultivated on soils with a high percentage of clay, limestone and gypsum.

This vineyard was planted in 1889 in goblet-training with Rupestris de Lot rootstock in staggered rows with a north-south orientation.

Biodynamic viticulture.

VARIETIES (10)

Most of them are local varieties such as: Trobat Negre, Monastrell, Garnacha Tinta, Mandó, Picapoll de la Noguera Rosado, Isaga, Moscatel Rosado, la X8, X Avi 1997 and X Avi 2167. These last 3 are unique varieties that are only found in this vineyard.

VINIFICATION

Fermentation in clay vessels made from Padilla clay. Native yeasts and bacteria. Contact with skins 2 months. Raised on its lees in vats for 5 months.

TASTING (2/6/25)

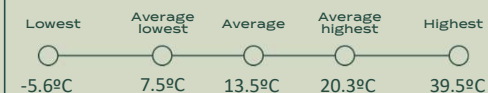

A vintage marked by finesse, with an elegant fruity background where blueberries and redcurrants coexist. Blue flowers, roses, and Mediterranean garrigue. Elegant fresh citrus notes of blood orange and complex earthy nuances.

On the palate, it is vibrant, with fleshy, sweet tannins of great delicacy. Mountain freshness and explosive fruit merge with a mineral backbone that completes the long finish. Undoubtedly, a fine example of elegance and complexity intertwined with history.
